Sunday Politics Laid to LBJ by Goldwater

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater charged today that President Johnson is neglecting his duties for "full-time politicking" that "turns Sunday into campaign chaos."

The Republican presidential nominee referred to a campaign trip Sunday by Johnson that included a visit to a church in Phoenix, Ariz., Goldwater's hometown.

Goldwater said the President had "visited church after church and city after city in a political travesty of the Lord's day."

After a quick flight here from Phoenix to open a new week of campaigning, the Arizona senator renewed his demands that Johnson agreed to a televised debate.

"If the man who now occupies the White House wants to be more of a full-time President between now and election day, there is a way," Goldwater said.

The way, he said, is a nationally televised debate that "could be taped, so as to avoid the possibility of Mr. Johnson making a mistake that might jeopardize national security."

Goldwater added, "It could be done at a time and place of his choosing, so as to permit him to spend more time at his desk."

Topeka was the first stop in a new week of campaigning, followed by a visit to Des Moines and a night rally in Milwaukee.

The senator, in a televised interview Monday night, said he felt the "Bobby Baker case" was hurting the President more than anything else and that the Republican ticket was beginning to draw more support from the voters.

"Our polls that we saw Sunday show us now over the 40 per cent mark in almost every state," he said.

Baker, former secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority, once was a Johnson protégé. He resigned last year when his wide-ranging financial activities were revealed.

Goldwater said that the issue most damaging to his campaign was "the outright lie that I am trigger happy."

"But I think that is being overcome by just people stopping to think that no man, particularly no American, is ever going to push the button."

In his Topeka speech, Goldwater said, "We face full-time responsibilities around the world, full-scale challenges. But not once do we hear of them from our part-time President."

"He gives us handshakes and handouts."

"He directs traffic and kisses babies rather than directing our foreign policy. He turns Sunday into a day of campaign chaos and the other days of the week into days of rest — so far as our foreign policy is concerned."

Dealing with the crisis in Southeast Asia, Goldwater said, "it requires more than a 10 minute stopover between street caravans."

This was a reference to a brief meeting Johnson had Sunday in San Francisco with President Diosdado Macapagal of the Philippines.

Johnson and Macapagal conferred at length earlier this month when the Philippine president was in Washington on a state visit.

Venezuela Rebels Free American

By PAUL FINCH

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — Communist terrorists released U.S. Air Force Lt. Col. Michael Smolen unharmed Monday night after two of the five-man gang that abducted him Friday were arrested.

Smolen, blindfolded, was put out of a car about 11 p.m. on a street corner in eastern Caracas. A passing police car spotted him almost immediately and took him to a police station.

He arrived at the embassy early today, said he felt fine and reported he had been treated well.

Interior Minister Gonzalo Barrios said the two terrorists seized in a downtown Caracas apartment early Monday were Spanish-born members of the Red underground called the Armed Forces of National Liberation (FALN).

Reliable sources said nine other suspected terrorists were picked up later.

Smolen told newsmen his abductors said they kidnapped him to make propaganda for their underground war against Venezuela's democratic government.

The 45-year-old officer from Chandler, Ariz., said his abductors never mentioned any plan to trade him for political prisoners in Venezuela or for a condemned Communist Viet Cong terrorist in South Viet Nam.

Various anonymous telephone callers had reported such proposals.

South Viet Nam police sources reported that the execution of the terrorist mentioned in connection with the Smolen abduction, Nguyen Van Troi, 19, still was scheduled for Thursday.

Smolen was the second American officer to be abducted and then released unharmed by Red terrorists. Last November, U.S. Army Col. James Chenault was held for eight days. U.S. Charge D'Affaires John Hill said Smolen's captivity apparently was shorter because the police were closing in.

Doesn't Fear Defeat, LBJ Keeps Up Pace

By FRANK CORMIER

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, elated over the results of his first full-scale campaign trip, says he will maintain a torrid pace until the Nov. 3 election.

It's not that Johnson fears defeat. But he makes clear he doesn't want to leave anything to chance — and big crowds prove a powerful lure for him.

The President returned to Washington early today from Boise, Idaho, last stop on a six-day, 10,000-mile campaign trip through 15 states from shore to shore.

He will be hitting the trail again Wednesday for two days in New Jersey, Pennsylvania and New York.

After that he'll be off for Ohio, then Texas and, very likely, other Western states.

Stumping through the Rocky Mountain states Monday, Johnson took direct aim at Barry Goldwater, the Ku Klux Klan and the John Birch Society.

Goldwater was a target in every appearance, but never by name; he was "our opponent" or "one candidate."

At Boise, Johnson said there may be no second chance for a president.

"The President of the United States has to be right the first time, and if he is not right the first time, there may be no second time for him to change his views or explain them or correct them, or there may be no time for the nation to change its choice."

Speaking off-the-cuff to a crowd in the Butte, Mont., civic center, Johnson raised a roar of applause with this shouted statement:

"I predict, if I am elected, that the extreme groups that have infected this country — the spotlight of publicity will be put on them and the Klan and the Birch Society and those others"

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Melanie Dreyfus, 5, was found near her west Little Rock home Monday night soon after police called out all auxiliary police and firemen to look for her.

The football game between Hope and Nashville Junior teams have been postponed. They will play Thursday night at 7:30 here in Hope.

A sure sign of bad weather, usually cold, was indicated this past weekend when ducks and geese went over by the hundreds.

According to Arkansas State Police records Hempstead County had 19 highway wrecks in August with two deaths resulting. Lafayette County had two wrecks and two deaths. Howard County had two and Nevada County had six but no fatalities in either.

Arlest Trout, Humble distributor in Hope and chairman of the Hempstead County Petroleum Council, announced the 30th Annual Convention of the Arkansas Petroleum Council will be held Oct. 15-16 in Little Rock with James H. Pipkin, executive vice president, Texaco Inc. as principal speaker.

The University of Arkansas has enrolled a record total of 9,773 students at all of the University units for the fall semester and Registrar Carter Short said the figure was 16 per cent above the number enrolled at the University a year ago.

According to Arkansas State Health Department statistics there were 30 babies born in Hempstead during the past month. . . 14 boys and 16 girls. . . there were 13 white boys and eight white girls. . . one Negro boy and eight Negro girls.

During the month of August Chairman Syd McMath said there were U.S. Savings Bonds sales in Hempstead of $19,757, and this brought the year to $132,382 which is 57.8 per cent of the $229,000 quota. . . Howard Louie Dickinson said sales there amounted to $8,889 bringing the year to $55,527 which is 49.1 per cent of the $113,000 quota. Lafayette County's J. C. Landes reported sales of $2,514, the year $31,189 which is 45.2 per cent of the $69,000 quota. Nevada, $3,823, the year $30,068 and this is 31.6 per cent of the $97,000 quota.

Two Women Fight for Bargain Bike

GLENS FALLS, N.Y. (AP) — It was a "Discovery Day" sale and two women who found the same bargain held on to it for more than 12 hours until persuaded to leave when the discount store closed at 10 o'clock Monday night.

Store manager Melvin Smith said the two vowed to resume their grips today on opposite ends of a $10 bicycle.

He said he offered to settle the dispute with a flip of a coin, but the women vetoed the idea.

All of Sudden Faubus Orders Gambling Raid

By JOHN R. STARR
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus announced today that State Police had raided an establishment seven miles south of Hot Springs and confiscated three slot machines and a quantity of alcoholic beverages.

Faubus said he ordered the raid after plainclothes state troopers gained entry to the establishment and played the slot machines.

Troopers were sent to the establishment, Faubus said, after he received a tip that it was permitting gambling.

Faubus said he directed Herman Lindsey, director of the State Police, to obtain a search warrant from Garland Circuit Court but that a warrant was not necessary after the troopers played the machines.

The governor identified the establishment as Jud's Place, on U. S. 270 between Hot Springs and Malvern.

Faubus said the owner, W. Jud Paulson, was arrested for operating a gambling house and dispensing alcoholic beverages without a license.

"It is expected that the prosecuting attorney may step into the case to file the proper charges," Faubus said.

Speaks Out Against Amendment

The Rev. Walter Yeldell, president of Arkansas Baptist Convention and pastor of Second Baptist church of Hot Springs, spoke out forcibly against proposed state amendment 55 here last night.

Appearing before a First Baptist Brotherhood rally which was also attended by pastors and laymen from other churches of Hope, he charged that tremendous pressures were being brought against Hot Springs business firms who fail "to fall in line" for casino gambling.

Proposed amendment 55 would legalize gambling in Garland county and will be voted on November 3. The Rev. Yeldell said organized gambling interests would spend at least a quarter million dollars in the campaign, and that $100,000 in TV time had already been purchased.

He charged that proposed amendment 55, once approved, would give the gambling interests the right to bring suit for collection of gambling debts, and would make the Arkansas courts a collection agency for them.

He charged legalized gambling and its by-product of crime and corruption go hand in hand and pointed to the state of Nevada—the only state of 50 which permits legal casino gambling —has the highest crime rate per capita in the United States. He pointed to a pamphlet which cited FBI figures for 1963 showing total offenses for Nevada as 2,990 to 648 for Arkansas.

In view of world conditions, "we need to strengthen the moral and spiritual fiber of our country, and not open the doors of Arkansas to crime, corruption and a cesspool of death and violence."

Democratic Rally
RUSSELLVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Plans were announced Monday for a River Valley Democratic Rally at Arkansas Polytechnic College Oct. 20.

The $2-a-plate event will be sponsored by the Tech Young Democratic Club.

A spokesman said Sen. J. William Fulbright will be the principal speaker but that other Democrats including Gov. Orval E. Faubus, Reps. J. W. Trimble and Wilbur Mills and possibly Sen. John L. McClellan will attend.

Soviet Three Man Space Ship Lands Safely as Planned

By FRED W. COLEMAN

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union's three-man space ship returned to earth today a little more than 24 hours after it blasted off on a pioneering flight that kept the Russians well ahead in the space race.

The Soviet news agency Tass said the Voskhod (Sunrise) landed safely at its "preassigned spot" in the Soviet Union at 10:47 a.m. (2:47 a.m. EST). That was 24 hours and 17 minutes after it had been blasted into orbit.

"All three members of the Voskhod crew are feeling well," Tass reported.

Soviet Premier Khrushchev, in a radio conversation with the three cosmonauts Monday, promised them the boisterous Moscow reception the Soviet capital traditionally gives to space travelers.

"Be ready for the overloading which we'll arrange for you after you come back to earth," the premier said.

The three members of Voskhod's crew, Col. Vladimir Komarov, the pilot; scientist Konstantin Feoktistov, and Dr. Boris Yegorov, were met at the landing spot by sports commissioners, correspondents and friends," Tass said.

The spacecraft landed after 17 orbits. It was the first flight by a spaceship containing more than one man.

"The program of scientific research, designed for 24 hours of flight, was accomplished in full," Tass said.

Valuable information was obtained about the flight of a group of cosmonauts consisting of specialists in different fields. For the first time, scientists were able to conduct observations directly in outer space.

"The information obtained as a result of the flight is being tabulated and processed."

Although this announcement said in effect that only a 24-hour flight had been planned, an announcement Monday said the flight was to test the stresses and strains on man during a long flight.

However, usually reliable sources said then that the satellite might stay up only two days.

The announcement of the launching said Voskhod had been "put into orbit close to the prescribed one." The orbit was highly elliptical, with a maximum height of 255 miles and a minimum of 110 miles. There was speculation in Moscow that it was far enough off the prescribed orbit to require an earlier landing than originally planned.

However, a spokesman at the city observatory in Bochum, West Germany, said it was believed there that the cosmonauts had trouble with their transmitter sending signals back to earth.

McClellan Backs National Ticket
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., endorsed the national Democratic ticket Monday, but did not say how actively he will support President Johnson.

McClellan, a conservative Democrat, said in answer to a question that "I am supporting the Democratic ticket — local, state and nation."

McClellan said he may have something to say on the issues in a series of speeches he is planning.

McClellan said he may campaign for Rep. James W. Trimble of Berryville and Gov. Orval E. Faubus. Both have Republican opposition.

U.S. Trailing Russia 2 Years in Space Race

By JOHN BARBOUR

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. space agency — never really ahead in the race to the moon — has new clues to just how far behind it is. It may trail the Russians by some two years.

The Soviets pointed this out Monday by launching a big new satellite called Sunrise with a big new space rocket—and complicated things by not saying how big either of them were.

They did say, however, that Sunrise carried three men — a pilot, a doctor and a scientist — in a shirt-sleeve environment, unencumbered by bulky space suits.

It will be some two years before the U.S. space program duplicates the feat — but the U.S. effort is not designed along parallel lines with the Soviet schedule.

Early next year, the U.S. schedule calls for the first of 10 two-man Gemini flights, culminating in two-week missions for some astronaut teams, and two-day missions for others in which the goal will be rendezvous, docking and maneuver with other space bodies.

Early this year, it seemed that the United States was catching up with the Soviet Union at least. The Soviets had been using rockets with the power of some 800,000 pounds of thrust to put into earth orbits spacecraft weighing about 15,000 pounds.

Then in January, the United States fired off Saturn 1 — with 1.5 million pounds of thrust. It put a dummy satellite weighing better than 37,000 pounds into orbit, the world's greatest known weightlifting feat until then, perhaps even now.

That was when Werner von Braun, who heads Saturn development, said: "We are now ahead of the Russians in cargo-carrying ability."

The entire Saturn program has a long-range goal—the Saturn 5. This monster will (Continued on Page Two)

Arkansas
Crops May Be Greater

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Crop Reporting Service said today total production of Arkansas crops may be 11 per cent greater than in 1963.

The crop, based on October 1 estimates, would be 20 per cent above the 1958-62 average production in the state, the service said.

The Agricultural Marketing Service said today that the cotton harvest in Arkansas has reached its peak with many gins operating on a 24-hour basis.

The Agriculture Department has estimated the crop at 1,550,000 bales, or 50,000 bales above the Sept. 1 forecast. The state produced 1,496,000 bales of cotton last year.

A record high lint yield is indicated — 605 pounds per acre compared to 582 in 1963, the previous high. The service said frequent rains in late September slowed the harvest and lowered the quality, but good weather this month has helped the crop.

A record high soybean crop of 63,840,000 bushels is expected, 11 per cent above the 1962 record yield. The indicated per-acre yield of 21 bushels compares with only 17.5 bushels last year.

Rice production is forecast at 18,705,000 equivalent 100-pound bags, a record three per cent above the 1963 yield of 18,105,000 bags. The estimated per-acre yield of 4,350 pounds is also new record, 100 pounds above the 1963 previous high.

Corn production for grain is estimated at 3,875,000 bushels, compared with 3,984,000 bushels of last year. Drought hurt the crop.

In Denver, an especially large and especially noisy crowd heard Johnson assail Goldwater as "our opponent" — as one who believes "the child has no right to an education."

Johnson added: "I say every child has the right to as much education as he has the ability to take. His right does not end in high school. His right goes on through higher education, if he wants it and can use it. It continues until he has acquired the training to take a useful and rewarding place in our society."

The President called for broad-scale efforts to aid education and youth training and suggested these as one means of combatting crime in the streets — a frequent topic in Goldwater's campaign speeches.

Small School Ratings in Football Poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sometimes winning just isn't good enough in the competitive business of football polls.

Take The Associated Press' small-college poll for example. Louisiana Tech was sixth a week ago before winning its fourth game of the season 6-3 against Southwest Louisiana. That close score upset the selectors' enough and as a result Tech resides three notches lower, in the No. 9 spot, on this week's poll.

Florida A&M apparently knew that winning wasn't enough to please the panel of sports writers and broadcasters. You have to win big. The Rattlers rolled up a 50-15 score against Central State and climbed from fifth place to No. 3.

But a big score wasn't enough to move San Diego State past Wittenberg into the top spot. The Aztecs ripped Long Beach State 45-8, but remained No. 2 behind Wittenberg which squeezed past Akron 7-0.

The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parentheses, are:

1. Wittenberg (8)
2. San Diego State (3)
3. Florida A&M
4. Lamar Tech (2)
5. Prairie View
6. Delaware
7. Susquehanna

9. Louisiana Tech
10. Texas A&I

Always the heart of our business

Why do most drugstores sell everything from breakfast to dance wax . . . ? The answer is simple. It is a matter of economic necessity. Americans, thank goodness, are generally healthy and there are not enough prescriptions to keep all drugstores going. Thus, we sell a variety of merchandise. By so doing we are able to stay open and render assistance whenever and wherever it is needed. Prescription service, however, continues to be the heart of our business and we are always pleased to assist you when medication is needed.

Possibility of Sweep for Americans

By TED SMITS

Associated Press Sports Editor

TOKYO (AP) — Towering Jed Graef, a 22-year-old Princeton student, smashed the world record with a 2:10.3 effort Tuesday and led an American 1-2-3 sweep of medals in the men's 200-meter backstroke championship in the Olympic Games.

Garry Dille of Huntington, Ind., was second and Bob Bennett of Long Beach, Calif., third in the American sweep that pushed the Yankee harvest of Olympic medals to 10—two gold, five silver and three bronze.

Graef, a lanky, 6-foot-6, 22-year-old from Verona, N.J., trimmed six-tenths of a second off the old world mark of 2:10.9 set by America's Tom Stock in 1962.

Dille also was under the old mark with a time of 2:10.5, losing to Graef by a finger nail in a photo finish. Bennett, was caught in 2:13.1.

Moments earlier, Australia's tall, strapping Dawn Fraser won an unprecedented third gold medal in the women's 100-meter freestyle in Games record time of 59.5 seconds.

Sharon Stouder of Glendora, Calif., was second and became the only other woman in the world to break the minute barrier in the event. The 15-year-old girl was timed in 59.9.

Kathy Ellis of Indianapolis added a bronze medal to the growing U.S. collection with a time of 1:00.8.

The only other gold medal awarded on the third day of the Olympic Games went to Poland's Waldemar Baszanowski, who won the lightweight class in weight-lifting with a total hoist of 951.5 pounds, a world record.

The United States was blanketed in this event, while Russia's Vladimir Kapitonov won the silver medal with the same weight. His second place gave Russia four medals—two gold, one silver and one bronze.

The American sweep of the backstroke and Miss Fraser's outstanding effort highlighted a day in which the United States put together a strong possibility of a sweep in springboard diving, advanced a maximum three swimmers in two separate events and lost another argument at the conference table.

Navy Lt. Frank Gorman of Queens Village, N.Y., led the divers after seven events with 105.99 points, followed in order by Larry Anderson of Los Alamitos, Calif., with 101.31 and Ken Stitzberger of River Forest, Ill., with 98.66. The finals will be held Wednesday.

Dr. Harold Henning, U.S. swimming team manager, formally requested a reconsideration of the final placings in the men's 100-meter freestyle finals and asked that Gary Ilman of San Jose, Calif., be advanced to a tie for third and share the bronze medal.

But Dr. Max Ritter, president of the International Swimming Federation, rejected the request and stood by an electronic timing device that caught Germany's Hans-Joachim Klein in a few thousandths of a second faster than Ilman in the Monday finals.

Both Klein and Ilman were timed in 54.0 seconds in the event usually decided by tenths of seconds. They had the same time when taken to hundredths of a second, but Klein was ahead when carried to three places. The swimming judges voted 4-4 for a tie at the time, but the swimming federation decided against the tie.

The U.S. basketball team, unbeaten in Olympic play since 1936, scored its third straight victory of the Tokyo Games, 60-45 over Peru, even though

Colleges to Ask Budget Increases

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A state commission said Monday it will ask the 1965 legislature for a $7,366,029 increase in appropriations for the seven state-supported colleges and the University of Arkansas.

The state Commission on Coordination of Higher Education Finance said the schools could expect about $25 million in the first year of the 1965-67 biennium, if the legislature grants the increase.

The second year should bring $27,466,029, the commission said. The commission also said that the community junior college is perhaps the only way that Arkansas can fill a gap in its education system.

The commission said in a report to the Legislative Council that school training facilities after high school are too few for the growing educational needs of Arkansas.

The commission said there were enough colleges, but they generally are located in areas of low population. This factor keeps many young people from attending for economic reasons, it said.

Of the $7.4 million the commission is asking, 79 per cent would be for the academic institutions — for teachers, teachers' salaries, libraries and staffs and for research.

The largest increase would go to the Fayetteville campus of UA, which presently gets $4,908,720, and the commission asked for a $2,234,381 increase.

New Bomber Is Being Tested

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — Test pilot Al White put the XB70A bomber through its paces here Monday, hitting speeds in excess of 700 miles an hour and an altitude of 35,000 feet. It was the third test of the trouble-plagued controversial ship.

White told newsmen he was Coach Henry Iba said the pressure of the 41-game winning string was becoming "an awful load to carry."

Three American girls, Nina Harner of Philadelphia, Ginny Dymek of West Orange, N.J., and Cathy Ferguson of Berkeley, Calif., advanced to the finals of the women's 100-meter backstroke, each winning her heat. Miss Ferguson's time was the fastest, 1:00.8.

The men's 400-meter freestyle relay team also advanced on the strength of a Games record performance in the heats. The team of Steve Clark of Los Angeles, Calif.; Larry Schulhof of Muncie, Ind.; Mike Austin of Rochester, N.Y., and Ilman had the fastest time of the qualifications, 3:38.8. Since the event is new to the Olympics, the time went into the books as a record.

Schulhof will be replaced in the final by Don Schollander of Lake Oswego, Ore., winner of the 100 meters Monday.

sure the 185-foot long bomber will reach its designed maximum altitude of 80,000 feet and top speed of 2,000 m.p.h. Monday's test was the highest and fastest of the three flights.

British Queen Ends Visit to Canada

OTTAWA (AP) — Queen Elizabeth II, bowed by separatists in French-speaking Quebec but warmly welcomed by Ottawans, ended her eight-day visit to Canada today and left for Britain.

The queen was aboard an Air Canada jetliner, which took off at 9:18 a.m.

Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson and a crowd of about 1,400 cheering persons turned out at the airport in the rain to bid farewell to the monarch.

Pearson said the queen "thanked us for inviting her and said she greatly enjoyed the trip."

Prince Philip left first. The queen's husband took off to spend the day hunting snow geese on a privately owned island off Ile d'Orleans in the St. Lawrence River. Then he will board the royal yacht Britannia for a tour of the Caribbean.

State Gains a Tie With Arlington

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Arkansas State and Arlington State played a 7-7 tie to leave Lamar Tech the undisputed leader of the Southland Conference Saturday.

Lamar Tech, boasting a 2-0 record and unbeaten and untied for the season, did not have a game last week.

Abilene Christian raced past Northwest Louisiana 36-26 and Trinity continued to lose but played it close in dropping a 13-6 decision to New Mexico State in battle with the outsiders.

There's only one conference game scheduled this week as Trinity meets Arkansas State at Jonesboro with the loser to be virtually eliminated.

Other members of the league play interconference games. Arlington State meets Louisiana Tech at Ruston, Lamar Tech plays the San Diego Marines at San Diego and Abilene Christian clashes with Dayton at Dayton, Ohio.

Arlington State scored first in the second period for Ken Bowman going over for the touchdown and Al Smith converted. Arkansas State tied it up in the third period when Tommy Reese smashed over from the seven and Dan Sommers converted.

Arlington State's Smith twice missed field goal tries in the last quarter, the final coming with only 12 seconds left.

Dennis Haganman was the star as Abilene Christian knocked Northwest Louisiana from the unbeaten ranks. He scored two touchdowns, one on a 77-yard punt return. Mike Love also pushed across for two touchdowns.

British Are Now Noisy in Politics

By TOM OCHILTREE

LONDON (AP)

Britain's rowdy national election campaign moved into its final phase today with subtle political arguments drowned in a rising tide of noise and disorder.

Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home, 61, the Conservative party leader, and Harold Wilson, 48, the Laborite chief, shouted themselves hoarse in an effort to be heard above the din.

Their lot and that of their colleagues was hard. In meeting after meeting, attendants have had to frog-march hecklers from halls and toss them out of doors.

Temper shorted with the approach of the voting Thursday.

About 28 million British men and women will elect a new 630-seat House of Commons and give either the Conservative or the Labor party a mandate to govern this country for the next five years.

If the Conservatives win, Douglas-Home will remain prime minister. Wilson will replace him at No. 10 Downing St. if the Labor party wins.

Both men are leading their parties in a national campaign for the first time. Douglas-Home is trying to give the Conservatives their fourth straight triumph. Wilson hopes to end the Laborites' 13 years in the wilderness.

The campaign began sedately enough following the end of the old Parliament Sept. 25. Wilson argued: "It's time for a change to get Britain moving." Douglas-Home countered: "Protect your prosperity by keeping the Conservatives in power."

Now the two leaders, living on their nerves, deplore the degeneration of this campaign into what some experts regard as Britain's most disorderly political contest of this century.

"It would be a national tragedy if vital issues are muffled by noise," Wilson said.

Douglas-Home said ordinary heckling — the give-and-take between a speaker and some member of the audience — is traditional and has a place in British politics. But rowdy behavior is something else again, he said. "It must stop."

No one knows why the mood has changed. One newspaper writer said: "Suddenly it's like the night the fox got in the hen-house and dad was too drunk to find his gun."

For election purposes Britain is divided into 630 districts, each averaging about 50,000 voters and each sending one member to the House. The districts have their rival Conservative and Labor party headquarters and sometimes a Liberal party one pushed across for two touchdowns.

Politics can get to be a serious business; and about this time during an election year, friends, relatives, in-laws, and out-laws are apt to rise up against each other and verbal blows will reign supreme.

Rumor has it that a certain fellow almost got into trouble the other night at a bridge party. Somebody said something about a woman running for President, and he said, "The reason more women don't run for President, is that by the time a gal can decide which hat to throw in the ring the election is over."

Right then and there his wife said she didn't have that many hats, but maybe she did need a new one!

Just in case any of you girls are in the same boat, we can help you out at Raley's Style Shoppe. We have a new selection of the smartest chapeaux that will be on the winning ticket, no matter who is running.

And, of course, you will want a new coat to wear with the hat. The black-as-night wool with the natural mink collar is lovely, $100.00. The green tweed that looks good enough to eat is the most flattering casual coat we have seen lately. The big, bold plaid by Crestmoor, is simply striking, $69.95. Others of 100 percent wool Veloura has a flat little collar that lays perfectly under your fur boa, scarfs or stole and... you won't believe it... but it is only $49.95.

There are others; forget the election for a little while and shop today at Raley's Style Shoppe, Hope's House of Fashions.

Family Dinner

A family dinner in the Clifton East home was given Sunday, October 11 to celebrate the birthdays of A. T. East of Rosston, 76, Patricia Ann East, 1, and Belinda East, 10, all of whom have the same birthday.

Some 53 people gathered for the joint celebration. They included the following from out of town: Mrs. Howard Dillard Mr. and Mrs. Bob Dillard and family, all of Casa Grande, Ariz.; Mr. and Mrs. Willis Butler and family, Tyler, Tex.; Mr. and Mrs. Gene Warren and family, Pine Bluff; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde East and family, Magnolia; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Vines and family, Stamps.

Osborn - Wilkison Vows Exchanged

In presence of families and a few close friends Miss Claudine Osborn and Richard Vance Wilkison, Jr. were united in marriage Friday night, October 9 in the home of the officiating minister, M. H. Peebles, pastor of the Walnut Street Church of Christ.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Osborn, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Wilkison, Sr., all of Hope. The couple was wed in a double-ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street-length dress of white nylon embroidered over taffeta. It was fashioned with short sleeves and a low-cut round neckline. The bride pinned white carnations at her shoulder.

Mrs. John Gilbert, sister of the bridegroom, was the honor attendant for the bride. She was attired in a pink suit.

Vance Wilkison served his son as best man.

Following the wedding, the guests were invited into the dining room of the home where wedding cake and pink fruit punch were served.

The newlyweds are now on a honeymoon at Lake Greeson, after which they will be at home in Louisiana where Pvt. Wilkison is stationed with the United States Army at Fort Polk.

"DEAR ABBY"

HIS GOD IS MAMMON!

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: My husband is a very good provider, but he has made money his god. He thinks he can do no wrong as long as he isn't taking the bread out of his family's mouth. I caught him with another woman, and he said, "So what? I've never spent a dollar on her. She pays for everything!" When he drinks he thinks it is all right because he has an expense account and can drink on company money. He has never denied me anything I wanted. I will say that for him. But I wish I could get it through his head that I would rather have more of HIM and less of his money.

BIG SHOT'S WIFE
Dear Wife: Since he has never denied you anything, ask him for one more personal favor. Ask him to lay out $25 an hour for an explanation of why he thinks a fat bank account buys him immunity from decent behavior. In this way his "god" could really help him.

Dear Abby: When a fellow asks a girl for a date, is it all right for the girl to ask him where they are going? Also, when a girl and her date go to different schools and their schools play each other in basketball or football, whose side do they sit on? Please pur your answers in the paper as I have a big argument with somebody over the answers.

O. O.
Dear O. O.: Yes, it is proper for a girl to ask the boy where they are going. How else would she know whether to dress for a movie or a Weiner roast? They sit on the boy's side. He's the host—unless, of course, she has come up with the tickets.

Dear Abby I notice that you too have heard from "IN LOVE," who says she is in love with her doctor. She states that her doctor has no such feelings for her, and she is so right! I am her doctor. Please tell "IN LOVE" to quit sending me those birthday cards, and other messages, which she addresses to me at one of the hospitals where I visit. I have no mail privileges there, and the stuff is simply readdressed and sent to my home or office. I have one heck of a time explaining that it is from "one of those nuts." (Anyway, how did she learn my birth date?) In short, I don't want any mail I have to worry about. Sign me,

Shortage in State Revenue Dept.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Legislative auditors said Saturday that the Cashier Division of the State Revenue Department was $17.72 short in accounting for the $195,769,047.89 it handled in fiscal 1964. Legislative Auditor Orvel M. Johnson told the Legislative Joint Auditing Committee that this was pretty close accounting. Committee members agreed.

Ladies Are Bidding for High Offices

By FRANCIS STIVLEY

NEW YORK (AP)—A number of women holding high state and national offices are bidding for reelection this year, and a great many more have jumped into the political fray for the first time.

A few of the newcomers could make political history in their respective states if they win.

In general, the lady candidates tend to void the belief that they can do just as good a job—and maybe even better than the men.

Some unusual situations developed as the staff division doffed aprons to battle for ballots.

In several major races it's a woman vs. woman showdown.

A 74-year-old woman is seeking a ninth term in the Massachusetts State Senate.

Men have plumb given up trying for the office of secretary of state in New Mexico.

An Iowa woman has a chance to become the first Negro to serve in her state's legislature.

In several states there isn't a single woman running for statewide or congressional office.

Among those seeking reelection are several veteran congresswomen.

One of the most prominent is Rep. Frances P. Bolton, Ohio Republican who has served since 1939. She was the first woman elected to Congress in Ohio.

Others include Reps. Katharine St. George, New York Republican first elected in 1946; Edna F. Kelly, New York Democrat who has served since 1949; Leonor K. Sullivan, Missouri Democrat who became the state's first congresswoman in 1952; and Florence P. Dwyer, New Jersey Republican first elected in 1956.

Still others are Washington state's two women representatives, Catherine May, a Republican first elected in 1958, and Julia Hansen, a Democrat who has served since 1960.

A woman candidate for the U.S. Senate this year is Genevieve Blatt, 50-year-old Pennsylvania state secretary of internal affairs and the first woman ever to hold state office in Pennsylvania. She was elected to the state office in 1954 and has been re-elected twice.

Miss Blatt, a Democrat, is running against Republican Sen. Hugh Scott. The race is expected to be close.

Another senatorial candidate is Mrs. Elly Peterson, a Republican and the first woman nominated by a major party for the post in Michigan. Her opponent is Democratic Sen. Philip Hart.

In Illinois, the fight for the 15th District congressional seat pits a woman against another woman. Republican Rep. Charlotte Reid, a 51-year-old widow who won the seat in 1962, is being opposed by Mrs. Poppy X Mitchell, 46, a housewife making her first try for political office.

In Kentucky, the only woman running for a major office is Mrs. Frances Mills, 43-year-old Democratic nominee for Congress in the 5th District.

If elected she would be the first woman ever to represent the Democratic party as a Kentucky congresswoman. She also would be the second woman in Kentucky history to represent the state in Congress.

In Hawaii, State Sen. Patsy Mink, 36, the first woman of Japanese ancestry to be licensed to practice law there and the first to serve in the state legislature, is a Democratic candidate for Congress.

Already assured of a seat in Congress is a 55-year-old Georgia grandmother, Mrs. Janet Merritt of Americus, a Democrat. She has no Republican opponent.

The first Negro to serve in the Iowa legislature may be a woman, Mrs. Willie Stevenson Glanton, a Des Moines attorney and wife of Municipal Judge Luther Glanton. She was the first woman prosecutor in Des Moines municipal courts.

The office of secretary of state in New Mexico has been a woman's world since 1922 and it's going to stay that way at least for two more years. The current officeholder, Mrs. Alberta Miller, a Democrat, has for her opponent Miss B. Lyman, a Republican.

The candidates for the same office in South Dakota are Miss Alma Larson, 32, a Republican, and Mrs. Travis Lewis, a Democrat.

In Arizona, Mrs. Jewel Jordan, a Democrat, is running for an eighth term as state auditor with Republican Robert Hub-

Bob Thomas at the Movies

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Young John Barrymore is back in town and working after an absence of five years.

At least I think it's young John. He says that's who he is, and the Barrymore voice, slightly Italianate, sounds familiar. But it is hard to recognize him under all that foliage.

He looks like a graying Beatie. His wild thatch plus the luxuriant beard make recognition difficult. But the profile — ah, the profile. It stands out unmistakably.

He started acting at age 17 as John Barrymore Jr., the sole name-bearing heir to the great theatrical dynasty. He has undergone a number of metamorphoses since, including two marriages, to Cara Williams and Italian actress Gabriella Palazzolo.

John did a number of films in his early Hollywood years, mostly as callow youths. Five years ago he left for Rome's dolce vita. His billing became John Drew Barrymore, possibly an escape from his father's overwhelming shadow.

"I don't mind if my acting is compared to him," says John. "The trouble is that people expect me to live like him."

John, now 32, is back home, perhaps to stay, and anxious to show Hollywood producers what he can do. He's starting by playing a heavy in "Rawhide."

Does he really expect to get jobs with the beard and Beatie cut?

"We'll see how it goes," he remarked. "With some producers it may be a drawback. But when I went in to see about the part in 'Rawhide,' they told me: 'Don't go near a barber; we want you just like that.'"

Since his return, young John has been getting reacquainted with his family. He reported that his mother, former actress Dolores Costello, is well and happy, as is his sister, Dede, who chose not to enter the family trade.

Then there is John Barrymore III, his son by Cara. He's 10 and a tiger, his father said. And the profile?

"Yes, it's there," said John. "although you may have to look below several layers of freckles to find it."

hard as her opponent, and Mrs. Sarah Folsom, a Republican, is seeking to unseat Democrat W. W. Dick as state superintendent of public instruction.

Says Trimble Is Against Stockman

BERRYVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Jerry Hinshaw, Sprindale Republican running against Rep. James W. Trimble, D-Ark., Sunday accused Trimble of working against the interests of cattlemen and poultrymen.

Hinshaw addressed a meeting of the Carroll County Cattlemen's Association here.

Hinshaw said Trimble voted for the feed grains program in 1961 and later supported it in the Senate — House Conference Committee. Hinshaw claimed Trimble did this even though it raised grain prices and was opposed by the Arkansas Poultry industry.

He said Trimble also voted to expand the same program in 1963.

The Republican candidate for the 3rd District post said Trimble voted for the Trade Expansion Act, which allowed an increase in the importation of foreign beef into the United States.

Lew Hedges, at the filling station in Majorca Beach would have a fistful of maps. But what was the name of the station? Craig knew what brand of gas was sold there, but how would it be listed? No use calling his apartment; Gail had left. He began poring over the yellow pages of the telephone directory and he was still at it when he heard a car stopping outside.

Gail was already knocking, when he reached the door. She sidled in breathlessly and put the message into his hands. Like the two others, it had been lettered through a duplicator stencil, but this time it ran over to a second page.

He skipped the opening sentences that Gail had read to him. It went on:

"Drive to Estrella Island. Rent rowboat, fishing tackle. No motor, no weapon, no flashlight. Go due south from pier to second inlet between mangrove islands, then turn in. Anchor, start fishing. You will be watched. If not safe, no contact. If O.K., we take money, you get Sandor then and there."

Sandor was still alive. Or it could be a brutal trick.

"Gail, do you know where Estrella Island is?"

She shook her head.

He had heard more noises in the parking lot. Going to the door, he found that Landall and Fergus had arrived at the same time. Landall had used his key; they were coming in. They stopped when Craig handed them the note and stood frowning at it together.

"Estrella Island!" Landall said. "They're really making us reach. Why, that's almost 250 miles south of here."

"Are you sure?" Fergus asked quickly. "Have you been there?"

"No, but I heard about it from a guy I met a couple of weeks ago. He bought an acre on one of those mangrove islands. They're undeveloped, practically all jungle. This one would be toward the northern part of the Ten Thousands Islands — you know, that long string of 'em in the Gulf, off the southwest coast. During Prohibition, rumrunners used to hide out in there." Sam Fergus was still scrutinizing the note. "No more than two. You, of course, Dick. For me, such a trip, then probably sitting for hours in a little boat, would be too painful. And" — he smiled with half his mouth — "I wouldn't suggest Bud."

"Allen, you may not like this," Craig said, "but I think Lew Hedges is the one who should go with me."

"Mind? What if I did? Velma made you the headman in this deal. And you seem to be strong for Lew."

Craig had expected something like Landall's acerbity.

Gail said quickly, "Come home with me: Dick. I'll fix breakfast for you. You can shave and shower there. You'll have time for a nap before Dad gets home from work."

He went down the corridor and into the rear corner room. Recalling the series of three numbers to dial was easy for him. There was only one sequence to remember; all four vaults had been set for the same combination. He went through the process without missing, turned the handle, opened the door, reached in. Then he stepped back and stood dumbfounded, staring.

The case packed with money was gone. And the list of serial numbers had vanished with it.

"Keep quiet!"

Startled, twisting around, he saw the glint of the gun and the inhumanly distorted features of the crouching man. Instinct instantly warned him that this was not somebody's idea of a joke; far from it.

TOKYO (AP) — The pro-Communist Pathet Lao sent a protest to the International Control Commission today confirming reports that right-wing forces have won back important positions in Laos.

Phoumi Vongvichit, former Pathet Lao minister in the coalition government, complained that the rightists have seized areas in the southern and eastern parts of Xieng Khouang Province and mounted repeated attacks on Mt. Phou Kout, southwest of the Plaine des Jarres.

Vongvichit said the positions had been under the control of the Pathet Lao and the neutralists who came over to their side after the Reds took over all of the Plaine des Jarres last May. The government said the public prosecutor would try to determine who was responsible and what charges, if any, might be made. It confirmed the shooting near the East

Warren, Hope at Top of Conference

After six weekends of football play the nine team Div. 4AA football conference is down to only two undefeated untied members — the Hope Bobcats and the Warren Lumberjacks. Each has a 3-0 league record.

The Bobcats are defending district champions and strong favorites to repeat.

The Lumberjacks are playing their first season in 4AA and have been impressive to date. In pre-season ranking they were at best rated only a "darkhorse."

Hope and Warren do not face each other on the schedule until Nov. 6th. Meanwhile Hope plays Fairview, Magnolia and Camden prior to that date, while Warren faces Malvern and Camden.

Malvern and Camden, each with one conference loss, can not yet be counted out of contention.

The Game of The Week for Div. 4AA this week will be Malvern at Warren. Other conference action finds Crossett at Camden; Fairview at Hope; and Smackover at Arkadelphia. In non-league action Magnolia plays at Haynesville, La.

Results last week: Conference — Warren 7 Smackover 6; Hope 15 Crossett 0; Malvern 26 Camden 7; Magnolia 21 Arkadelphia 0. Non-league: Fairview 11, DeQueen 39.

Phil Clem, Malvern, continues the individual scoring leadership with 43 points, followed by Jerry Burnett, Hope 36 points, and David McMurry, Warren, with 36 points.

How They Figure the World Series

NEW YORK (AP)—Bob Gibson's victory in the World Series Monday was his first in an extra-inning game involving major league competition. Since joining the Cards in 1961 he pitched more than nine innings only twice—9 2-3 against Houston on Aug. 14, 1962, as St. Louis lost 4-3 and 9 1-3 against Cincinnati on Sept. 7, 1962, when the Cards dropped a 6-5 verdict.

The Yanks' Pete Mikkelsen, victim of Tim McCarver's three-run homer in the 10th, yielded three homers in 86 innings covering 50 appearances during the regular American League season. They were to Joe Azcue of Cleveland, Ken Harrelson of Kansas City and Jimmie Hall of Minnesota.

McCarver's home run was the first in an extra-inning Series game since Gil McDougald of the Yanks tagged one in the 10th inning of game No. 6 in 1958.

With Gibson fanning 13 Yankees, St. Louis outfielders had little to do Monday, each corraling only one fly ball. Series totals are 23 flies caught by Cards' outfielders and 30 by the Yankees' outfield.

Porkers in Good Shape Physically

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—The Arkansas Razorbacks, getting ready for the big game of the Southwest Conference Saturday, were forced inside Monday by a light drizzle.

The Hogs usually spend the first day of their practice week on loosening up sore muscles, anyway, so not much time was lost.

Coach Frank Broyles was terse on the upcoming Texas game in Austin. "They're No. 1 and deserving of the rating."

Arkansas moved up in the national ratings, too. The Razorbacks are eighth, after being in a ninth-place tie last week.

Looks Like Every Game Has a Hero

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The slugger gets the nod every time. Which is another way of saying that catcher Tim McCarver, who walloped a game-winning three-run homer in the 10th inning for the St. Louis Cardinals, was the hero of Monday's fifth World Series game instead of pitcher Bob Gibson.

Forgotten was the fact that Gibson shut out the Yankees for eight innings, struck out 13, scored the first Cardinal run and made a great fielding play in the ninth after McCarver belted his homer with two on for the 5-2 victory and a 3-2 lead in the Series.

McCarver, a 22-year-old, 195-pounder from Memphis, struck out with the bases loaded in the first inning and tapped weakly back to the pitcher in the fourth inning. He singled in the eighth and singled again in the eighth. So when he came up in the 10th with men on first and third and one out, reliever Pete Mikkelsen worked on him carefully. The count went to 3-2 then Tim belted a sinker that didn't sink into the right-field seats.

"We want McCarver, we want McCarver," chanted the crowd at the airport that welcomed the Cardinals back to St. Louis Monday night.

There was no mention of Gibson, the fire-balling right-hander, who should have had a 2-0 shutout except that Dick Groat's error on Mickey Mantle's grounder leading off the Yankee ninth opened the gates to two unearned runs and a tie score.

Gibson fanned Elston Howard

Arkansas victory over Baylor, Broyles said the team looked good.

"Even though we didn't look too good around the goal line, I was proud of our offensive line. They are taking great pride in carrying out their assignments," Broyles said.

All Razorbacks are expected to be in good shape for the Texas game — a battle which will put a blemish or similar 4-0 season mark and go a long way in deciding the 1964 SWC champion.

Cardinals Now Favored to Capture Series

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. LOUIS (AP)—For the first time since the start of hostilities, the St. Louis Cardinals found themselves World Series favorites over the New York Yankees today.

Odds-makers made the high-flying Redbirds a strong 2-1 choice following their 5-2 triumph Monday that gave them a 3-2 edge in the best-of-seven Series.

Everything appears to be stacked in favor of the Cards. First, they will be back home for the sixth game Wednesday. First, they will be back home for the sixth game Wednesday after taking two out of three in New York.

Second, their pitching, thanks to today's respite because of travel, is in tip-top shape with veteran Curt Simmons primed for his return engagement with young Jim Bouton of the Yankees.

Third, Cardinal Manager Johnny Keane thinks there is a strong possibility that Julian Javier, the convalescing second baseman, will be ready to make his first start.

Finally, the Cards have won all four full-length World Series in which they have participated. They defeated the Yankees in seven games in 1926, the Philadelphia Athletics in 1931, the Detroit Tigers in 1934 and the Boston Red Sox in 1946.

Should the Cardinals lose the sixth game, they will still have the home edge in the finale with ace Bob Gibson a strong possibility to make his third start in the Series. Whitey Ford, currently nursing a tender right heel, would be Gibson's probable opponent.

The closeness of the Series fails to tell by how wide a margin the Cardinals have outplayed the Yankees in the first five games. The Yankees hold a slight edge in over-all batting, but the Cards lead in everything else. They have outrun, outfielded, outpitched and outmaneuvered the Yankees.

Monday's game, won in 10 innings by the Cardinals on catcher Timmy McCarver's three-run homer, was a typical example. The Cardinals, except for shortstop Dick Groat's error in the ninth which paved the way with Mantle on first, then made a great play on Joe Pepitone's line drive back to the box. The ball hit Gibson on the hip and bounded toward the third base foul line.

A former basketball player, the Omaha, Neb., 28-year-old raced towards the ball, picked it up, whirling as he did so, and threw to first base to get Pepitone by a half step.

That brought up Tom Tresh and he whacked Gibson's first pitch into the center-field bleachers at the 407-foot mark for a homer that tied the score. "It was a fast ball down the middle," said Gibson, offering no excuse.

He had struck out Tresh with a fast ball in the seventh. Only, Tresh said, "That fast ball wasn't down the middle."

Never mind that McCarver never would have come to bat in the 10th except for Gibson's great play on Pepitone in the ninth. McCarver was the slugger who won the game and the hero's role.

way to Tommy Tresh's game-tying homer, sparked in the field.

In contrast, the Yankees' defensive play, as in the first four games, was sloppy and uncertain. New York was guilty of its sixth and seventh errors of the Series. An error by catcher Elie Howard on an interference play helped the Cards fill the bases in the first inning, but young Mel Stottlemire pitched his way out of the jam without any damage.

Stottlemire was betrayed again in the fifth. This time he couldn't escape. After pitcher Bob Gibson had singled with one out, Curt Flood hit a double play ball directly at Bobby Richardson. The usually dependable second baseman bobbled the ball and all hands were safe. A single by Lou Brock and a force play, that would have been a double play were it not for shortstop Phil Linz' poor relay, resulted in a 2-0 Cardinal lead.

Gibson, beaten in the second game, had a shutout going into the ninth. But Groat bobbled Mickey Mantle's grounder and, after two out, one of which was Gibson's 12th strikeout, Tresh slammed his dramatic game-tying homer that sent the crowd of 65,633 into a frenzy.

Then came the stormy 10th in which the Yankees looked their worst. Pete Mikkelsen, third Yankee pitcher, walked Bill White to open the inning. Ken Boyer, ordered to sacrifice, bunted to the right of the mound. Mikkelsen neglected to field the ball and it went for a single.

The sacrifice play was still on with Groat at bat, but Dick missed the bunt attempt and White was trapped off second. Howard fired to the bag but White turned and dashed toward third, sliding in safely when Pedro Gonzalez failed to hang on to Phil Linz' low throw.

Groat failed to bring White home, bouncing out into a force play, but McCarver settled the issue with a 3-2 clout into the right-field stands. "I'd have to say things look better now," said Keane in what could be the understatement of the Series. "We go back to our own park with a game lead."

McCarver, who had also hit a home run in the Cardinals' pennant clincher last Sunday, acknowledged this one "was the biggest one of my life although all I wanted was a little single or a fly ball to the outfield."

"The homer will have a good effect on Timmy," said Keane. "And it probably will have something to do with my future."

Keane obviously was referring to his relations with the club's front office. He had been offered a new contract the last week of the season after speculations that he would be fired. He begged off discussing next year's pact until after the Series.

Porkers Take Over 8th Spot in Grid Poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

That blur that flew past the other teams in The Associated Press' college football poll this week was Illinois but the flight was a bumpy one and worse than that, it was in the wrong direction.

The Illini, ranked No. 2 in last week's AP poll of sports writers and broadcasters, took on fourth-ranked Ohio State last Saturday and came out on the short end of a 26-0 score.

The impressive victory moved the Buckeyes into the No. 2 slot and dropped Illinois right out of the Top Ten. But the Illini slide off the poll wasn't a lonely one. Kentucky and Michigan State, both thumped on Saturday, also dipped out of sight.

Texas continued to top the poll with 30 first-place votes of the 40 ballots cast and 397 points. Ohio State had seven first-place ballots and 344 points in the voting which awards 10 points for first, 9 for second,

1. Texas (30)
2. Ohio State (7)
3. Alabama (2)
4. Notre Dame (1)
5. Michigan
6. Nebraska
7. Syracuse
8. Arkansas
9. Louisiana State
10. Florida State

(Brock White, McCarver, Gibson 2, Maxvill), Mikkelsen 3 (Shannon 2, Gibson), HBP — By Gibson (Howard).
U — V. Smith (N) plate, A. Smith (a) first base, Secory (N) second base, McKinley (A) third base, Burkhardt (N) left field, Soar (A) right field at 2:37. A — 65,633.

McCarver Is Thrilled Over Homer

By TOM PENDERGAST
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)— Compared with winning the pennant, Tim McCarver said the thrill of his winning three-run homer in the 10th inning of Monday's World Series game was like choosing between $5,000 and a new car.

But, "without a doubt," it was his biggest hit ever. "Maybe it's a bigger thrill to me than winning the pennant," said the joke-making catcher for the St. Louis Cardinals. "But how can you tell? It's like asking which you'd rather have, $5,000 or a Cadillac."

McCarver's blast in the 10th inning gave the Cardinals a 5-2 victory over the New York Yankees and a Series lead of three games to two.

"It also will have its effect on him — a good effect," said Cardinal Manager Johnny Keane. "And it probably will have something to do with my future, etc. The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parentheses, and total points:

1. Texas (30)
2. Ohio State (7)
3. Alabama (2)
4. Notre Dame (1)

7. Syracuse
8. Arkansas
9. Louisiana State
10. Florida State

too," he grinned. Yogi Berra, the Yankee manager, was looking at it another way after the game. He said a successful sacrifice bunt attempt by Cardinal shortstop Dick Groat possibly could have helped the Yankees out of the fateful 10th — and kept McCarver from hitting.

"If there was a base open," said Berra. "I would have put him (McCarver) on. If Groat had bunted, that would've given us an excuse to walk McCarver."

The Yankees had tied the score 2-2 in the last of the ninth on Tom Tresh's right-field homer off Gibson, who had pitched scoreless ball for 8 2-3 innings. He hit a fast ball down the middle.

Keane bowed his head when Tresh's ball went into the stands, and when the right-handed Gibson returned after the final out, the Cardinal manager said:

"Don't worry. We've been a scrapping team all year and we can scrap back again."

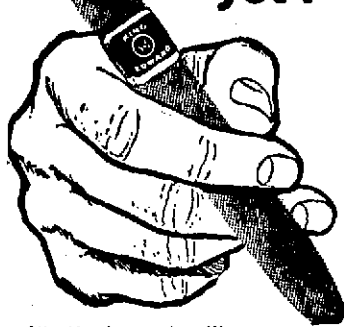

He was right. Gibson and McCarver were laughing and hugging each other after the game in the St. Louis dressing room.

In all, Gibson fanned 13 men—including the dangerous Mickey Mantle twice. He had held the Yankees scoreless and limited them to only four hits going into the ninth.

"When McCarver hit that homer," Gibson sighed, "I was the happiest man in the world."
